New possibilities arise.

April 2020 Tarot Spread

This is a resting time before your new challenge begins.

These are your useful tools for a transcendental time in your life:

I - The Magician – Practical Mind

The formula of success is the application of your will, courage, and faith.

It is essential knowing exactly what you wish to achieve.

You can transform the world around you if you focus on a project or a goal using your skills, experience and determination.

II - The High Priestess – Intuition

One of the definitions for intuition is, "a short cut".

Accepting your intuitive intelligence and the knowledge that you can accelerate your progress will give you strength and hope. She reveals hidden things and suggests new solutions.

XX - Judgement – Freedom and renewal

Cycles are concluding.

A new order of living is arising.

This is a moment of a great awakening in your life.

You have time to think, moments for quiet contemplation to evaluate how you got so far during this time out. This is a good moment for cultivating ideas, and let them grow while awaiting.

It will be imperative to make decisions soon. Your power to discern among the options available will be essential to make your choices. Proposals leading to resolve the environmental situation affecting all of us are going to come around.

A mature, responsible, methodical, patient and trustworthy person that is focused on doing thing correctly will be able to lead in what's necessary right now.

The guides: The Chariot & The Emperor

This card predicts a triumphant victory over life opposing forces that is the product of personal effort and determination. Your skills and abilities will help you to move ahead.

The leaders that will succeed are the ones with a plan and a purpose, focus on common goals, leading with reason, control and vision, and able to make decisions that best suite the majority.
