May 2020 Tarot Spread

A month to getting totally involved with the direction of your life.

The special guidance card for this month is The Chariot – The Victory

This Arcana is still with us from last month, reminding us that we will be successful in dealing with difficult situations. We need to concentrate with what we know in a single goal and move confidently through circumstances and obstacles on our path.

Our skills and abilities will help us to move ahead

The Fool - The Unknown

You are aware that this is an unprecedented situation, and that it is time to take the next step trusting that life is on your side.

This is a moment of new beginnings in uncharted territory.

Make the necessary steps to organize what's needed, trying different ideas, and keep an open mind to implement new solutions. Trust your instincts.
 Some options and proposals are going to be offered for your consideration, but they do not seem effective to resolving the situation. Searching further for a solution that makes more sense is a good idea.
 Even if you feel unmotivated and discontent about what it is going on, pay attention to what is happening around you anyway, or you may miss a great opportunity.

The Justice – The Justness of a Situation

Material success connected with a lawsuit or legal issue will be reaching a fair and just outcome.

Information will be disclosed about a bad administration concerning finances. People will feel uneasy and apprehensive about it. Eventually, after this situation being carefully analyzed, the people involved will have to accept their responsibility for what has been done. A very capable woman will be taking a prominent place in the resolution of this issue.

"Start by doing what's necessary;
then do what's possible; and suddenly you are doing the impossible." - Francis of Assisi
