July 2021 Tarot Spread

A month to detach from the old, embrace the new and aim for your dreams.

A time out from a troublesome situation is needed. It is necessary to rest and recuperate from all the struggles that you went through to be able to return to the outside world ready to move on with your plans.

The Devil: Stress - Confusion - Pressure

The challenge during this month will be trying to get control of a fluctuating and stressful issue at the same time that you are working on putting your life back together. You will encounter people unwilling to recognize that they have to adapt to new circumstances.

You may need to deal with the illusion that the situation is controlling you, making you feel helpless.

Be aware that simply by taking control of it we can come out of any situation.

The outdated structures of the past are gone. Continuing with the old ways will bring frustration and defeat. Don't expend your energy in a no-win situation. You are strong enough to contemplate what lies ahead. More information is coming to complete the picture. Communication is essential, and a short trip will be beneficial to accomplish your goals.

Your effort expended in developing new ideas into a plan will lead to success.

Focusing on a new start will bring you energy and enthusiasm. Inspiration and creativity will be flowing through you. Direct your energy to search for new ideas. Keep a positive attitude and focus on what you wish to bring into your life.

There is a pretty good possibility that your wish will come through during this month.
